

Literacy

- Looking at both non-fiction and fiction texts
- Defining and using new vocabulary
- Orally rehearsing texts
- Editing and publishing
- Improving spelling and handwriting
- We will be reading Malala's autobiography and creating diary entries about her experience and writing a biography about her.

PE

- Shooting
- Communication
- Teamwork
- Serving
- Accuracy
- Control

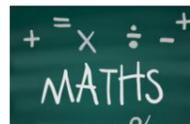

We will be leaning and playing table tennis.

Year 5 will be supporting the mental health charity 'Mind' this year.

Maths

- To explore percentages
- Investigate the relationship between fractions and percentages
- To write percentages as fractions and decimals
- To find 10%, 5% and 1% of an amount
- To then use this skill to find any percentage of an amount
- To use knowledge of percentages to solve problems
- To problems solve involving money
- To convert between pounds and pence

ICT

- Internet safety - why it is important to be safe whilst on the computer
- Introduction to a new computer
- Using Microsoft word and PowerPoint.

Islam -- a study of modern Islam

Art & Music

- Creating our own mosaic patterns based on Islamic techniques and Islamic influences

Science- Properties & changes of materials.

- Identify materials and describe materials' properties
- Identify materials that are soluble or insoluble in water
- Order materials according to their electrical conductivity
- Explain the processes used to separate mixtures
 - Explain irreversible changes
- To make observations and conclusions from set up, reliable investigations
- To use scientific language to explain findings

History & Geography

- Explaining who Muhammed was and knew that he was the founder of Islam
- To learn about the five pillars of Islam
- To understand the five pillars all have different meanings
- To understand that Muslims have instructions for worship
- To understand the rituals of prayer
- To explore the importance of prayer mats
- To understand why Muslims fast and the significance of certain foods.

