worship

when people see how

other people worship and think they want to be like them.

they may be doing it for the wrong reason.

Jesus asked the people, "What did you do to worship God?"

The people said, "We worship God in the temple every day." "Are you telling me it's wrong to worship God in the temple?" Jesus asked. "Of course not. But you don't do it properly. You don't have the right heart to worship God."

Jesus said, "You worship God in the temple every day. But when you worship God, you must do it with your heart."

Jesus went to the temple and saw a group of people offering sacrifices. "Jesus, why did you say the people worship God in the temple?" someone asked. "I did. But they don't worship God with their heart. They are only doing it to obey the rules."

Jesus said, "The true worship of God is to love God with all your heart, soul, and mind."

Key Facts:

- God wants people to worship Him.
- When people worship God, they should do it from their heart.
- God wants people to love Him.
- When people love God, they should obey His commandments.

Creation

Genesis is the first book of the Bible. It is divided into three parts. Genesis 1 describes the creation of Heaven and Earth. Genesis 2 focuses on the creation of the first humans, Adam and Eve. In Genesis 3, Christians learn how Adam and Eve disobeyed God and brought sin into the world.

Genesis 1 explains how:

- God is the only creator.
- God existed before he created the world.
- The world was well planned and is sustained by God.
- God blessed creation, which means that all creation is holy.
- God created everything in Heaven and on Earth in six days.
- On the seventh day, God rested.

Stewardship and dominion

Then God said, 'Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over the livestock and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth.' (Genesis 1:26)

Many Christians see this part of Genesis as evidence that humans have dominion, or power, over God’s creation. However, this does not mean that humanity should exploit the Earth’s resources. Most Christians believe that humanity’s purpose is to look after the world that God has created like caretakers (or stewards), because creation belongs to God, not people. This is known as stewardship.
The Trinity

The Trinity refers to the idea that God is one, but can be experienced in three different Persons. The word ‘trinity’ comes from the word ‘tri’ meaning ‘three’ and ‘unity’ meaning ‘one’.

Christians believe that there are three distinct Persons to this one God and that these three Persons form a unity. This belief is called the doctrine of the Trinity:

- God the Father - the creator and sustainer of all things
- God the Son - the incarnation of God as a human being, Jesus Christ, on Earth
- God the Holy Spirit - the power of God which is active in the world, drawing people towards God

God the Father

Christians refer to God as the Father. God the Father is the creator of all things. He is the creator ex nihilo. This means that God created the universe and all things in it out of nothing. This belief was explained and explored by St Augustine, a prominent theologian and philosopher in the early Christian Church, in his Confession XII, 7; …create something, and that out of nothing. The belief is that before the universe there was nothing and everything in it is dependent on God.

God is also viewed as a loving father. This means that he cares and loves humanity, as a father loves his son. This is shown in the Parable of the Prodigal Son. (Luke 15:11-32)

In the parable, despite the son having squandered his early inheritance, the father still welcomes him home with open arms and a celebration. In the same way, God welcomes back those who have sinned and now seek to be reconciled with him.

God the Son

God the Son refers to Jesus Christ, the Son of God. For Catholics, this is Jesus as God in human form, who was sent to save humanity. He was sacrificed for the sins of humankind, which allows them to be reunited with God after death. Jesus Christ is the incarnation of God on Earth - The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us (John 1:14).

Christians believe that the Son was present at the creation of the universe, but wasn’t in his human form at this stage. God chose to reveal himself as a human being in order to spread his teaching, to show how life should be lived, and to represent humanity for their salvation.

Jesus Christ was both fully divine and fully human. This means he was fully God, as well as fully human.

God the Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is the power of God at work on the Earth. In the scriptures, it is often depicted as wind, fire or in the form of a dove. It is through the power and workings of the Holy Spirit that God is known today and how God teaches Christians what to do. The Holy Spirit is connected with life and the soul. When Adam was created, God breathed life into him.
Jesus

According to the Bible, the Virgin Mary was visited by the Angel Gabriel, who told her that she was to have a son and that he would be named Jesus. He would be a divine baby.

The gospels teach that Jesus had a human birth, the story of which is referred to as the nativity. Many Christians celebrate at Christmas to remember that God the Son was born in the person of Jesus.

The incarnation

When Jesus was born, God became present on earth as a human and as the second part of the Trinity - the Son. This is referred to as the incarnation of Jesus, as it was when God took on human form, becoming fully God and fully human at the same time. Jesus is referred to as Christ or Messiah and he showed Christians how they should live.

Jesus grew up in a Jewish family and community in Nazareth. He was a carpenter like his human step-father, Joseph.

Jesus’ Baptism

At the age of 30, Jesus was baptised by John the Baptist and began teaching and performing miracles, such as healing a blind man. This is known as his ministry. He also recruited his disciples and together they taught God’s message to many people.

Jesus demonstrated God’s love and gave guidance and teachings throughout his life. The Sermon on the Mount contained some of his most important messages. One of his key teachings was the Parable of the Good Samaritan, which teaches Christians to love thy neighbour (Luke 10:30-37).
The Temptation

Summary

The spirit led Jesus into the desert to be tempted by the Devil. After forty days and nights without food, Jesus was hungry. The Devil tempted Jesus to turn stones into bread, to which he replied, “Human beings cannot live on bread alone, but need every word God speaks.” The second temptation was for Jesus to throw himself from the highest point of the temple and order angels to catch him. Jesus replied, “Do not put the Lord your God to the test.” Finally, the Devil offered Jesus all the kingdoms of the world in return for worshipping him. Jesus replied, “Worship the Lord your God and serve only him!”

The Devil left Jesus and angels came and helped him.

The three temptations which Matthew records give an insight into the issues that Jesus was wrestling with during his forty days in the wilderness:

1. “Tell these stones to become bread” – The first dilemma which Jesus faced was how to use his miraculous power, whether to use it for selfish reasons or to help others. Jesus denied himself the opportunity to satisfy his hunger, even though he had been fasting for forty days and nights. This shows that he is not concerned with material things but with spiritual food given by God.

2. “Throw yourself down” – Jesus was told to throw himself from the highest point of the temple. On this one occasion the Devil himself quoted scripture. Again, the challenge to Jesus was to misuse his power. But it also asked Jesus to prove that he was the Messiah and that God really cared for him. This question was an important one for Jesus to deal with because he would be faced with it again and again as people questioned his identity and authority.

3. “Bow down and worship me” – This temptation tested Jesus’ devotion to God and also his desire for political power. However, Jesus showed that his idea of a Messiah was not one who had political power but one who put God’s kingdom first.

Jesus responds to each temptation with a quotation from the Old Testament book of Deuteronomy. This shows that when Jesus is tempted and feels he is in a difficult situation, he looks to God’s word for guidance.

As a result of the temptations, Jesus was stronger and more prepared for his ministry because he had rejected three false ways of doing his task:

- providing only for people’s material needs
- using his power to do miraculous tricks and win popularity
- giving in to evil in order to gain political power
