Questions 27 to 32 are about ‘How the Leaves Came Down’

27. What season is the poem about? Tick one box.

- spring
- summer
- autumn
- winter

28. In line 29 the author uses ‘white bedclothes’ to refer to what? Tick one box.

- sheets
- snow
- leaves
- hail

29. The poet uses the words ‘frolicked’ and ‘danced’ to describe the leaves. What do these words tell you about the way the leaves moved?

__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________

30. Find and copy two sentences from the poem that show the relationship of the tree to the leaves to be similar to a parent and child relationship.

1. ________________________________________________________________

2. ________________________________________________________________
31. The poet uses personification to make the leaves seem alive. Find and copy two sentences from the poem that show this.

1. ................................................................................

2. ................................................................................

32. ‘It is so nice to go to bed.’ How does this compare to the way the leaves felt at the beginning of the poem? Explain your answer in full using evidence from the poem.

..............................................................................

..............................................................................

End of questions about ‘How the Leaves Came Down’

* * * END OF TEST * * *