Message from the Headteacher

Dear Parent/ Carer,

This week we have had author Sharon Carr-Wu visiting our school for National Storytelling Week. The children have all enjoyed attending storytelling workshops with her.

Year 4 had their Viking Day on Thursday. Humph's Histories once again delivered a fantastic History workshop bringing their curriculum to life. All year 4 children really enjoyed their day, learnt lots of new facts and all went home with their very own Viking Shield!

Attendance has been strong again this week. We are still at 97.3% and number one in the Ark Network. Thank you for your support in getting your child/ children to school on time, every day.

We've had a few reports of headlice this week. Please be vigilant and routinely use a headlice comb with conditioner in wet hair to check for headlice eggs. Thank you.

Parents' Evening Y1-Y5. We have had to move this back to Tuesday 3rd March 2020. Apologies for any inconvenience caused. If you have already booked your appointments, these will remain for the Tuesday 3rd March now. If you have any queries, please see staff before or after school or phone the school office. Thank you.

Next week is our last week of Spring 1 term. The pupils break up on Thursday 13th February 2020 at normal time of 3.15pm. School is closed to pupils on Friday 14th February 2020 as it is an Ark Inset Day. All pupils return on Monday 24th February 2020.

Have a lovely weekend,

Yours sincerely,

Mrs C Brasenell.
Primary Headteacher.
